

HAJJ · 01 OF 08 The Pilgrimage الْحَجُّ Carry this in ihrām. Each panel is one stage, in the order you will walk it. 2 · The three types & the mawāqit 3 · Ihrām — its prohibitions 4 · 'Umrah — ṭawāf & sa'y 5 · 8–9 Dhul-Ḥijjah — Minā & 'Arafah 6 · 10 Dhul-Ḥijjah — the day of Naḥr 7 · 11–13 & the farewell 8 · Dam, fidyah & Madīnah Arkān cannot be replaced by compensation. Wājibāt missed are made good by a dam.	02 The three types Tamattu' — 'Umrah first, then leave ihrām entirely, then enter it again for Hajj on the 8th. A hady is owed. The easiest, and what the Prophet ﷺ instructed his Companions to do. Qirān — one ihrām for both, held unbroken until the 10th. A hady is owed. Ifrād — Hajj alone, with no 'Umrah in the same journey. No hady is owed. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ. One who cannot find a hady fasts three days in Hajj and seven on returning – Q 2:196. THE MAWĀQIT The boundaries at which ihrām must be entered. Passing one without it obliges a dam. Dhul-Ḥulayfah – Madīnah Al-Juhfah – Shām, Egypt, the west Qazn al-Manāzil – Najd Yalamlam – Yemen Dhāt 'Irq – Iraq Those flying enter ihrām before passing overhead — change and make the intention on board, or at the airport before boarding. Residents of Makkah enter from where they are. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ – “They are for the people of those places, and for all who pass through them intending Hajj or 'Umrah.”	03 Iḥrām Bathe, perfume the body — not the garments — then wear two unsewn white cloths. A woman wears her ordinary dress, with face and hands uncovered. THE TALBIYAH لَبَّيْكَ اللَّهُمَّ لَبَّيْكَ، لَبَّيْكَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ لَبَّيْكَ، إِنَّ الْحَمْدَ وَالنَّعْمَةَ لَكَ وَالْمُلْكَ، لَا شَرِيكَ لَكَ Called aloud by men, softly by women, from entering ihrām until the first stone is thrown on the 10th. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ FORBIDDEN IN IḤRĀM Cutting hair or nails. Perfume of any kind, including scented soap. Intercourse, and all that leads to it. Contracting a marriage, or proposing one. Hunting or assisting a hunt within the haram. Men only — sewn garments, and covering the head. Women only — the niqāb and gloves; she may drape a cloth loosely over her face before men. Bukhārī · ṣaḥīḥ. Washing, bathing, wearing a belt, sandals, spectacles and a watch are all permitted.	04 Ṭawāf & sa'y ṬAWĀF — SEVEN CIRCUITS Purity is required, as in prayer, and the shoulders are covered. Begin at the Black Stone facing it, say Allāhu akbar, and keep the Ka'bah on your left. Men uncover the right shoulder and walk briskly for the first three circuits — in ṭawāf al-quḍūm only. Touch or point to the Stone at each circuit; touch the Yemeni corner if you can, without pushing. Between the two corners say: Rabbanā ātinā fid-dunyā ḥasanah... After seven, pray two rak'ahs behind Maqām Ibrāhīm, then drink Zamzam. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ. There is no prescribed du'ā for each circuit; ask for what you wish. SA'Y — SEVEN PASSAGES From Ṣafā to Marwah is one, Marwah to Ṣafā the second, ending at Marwah. Men run between the green markers. On mounting each hill, face the Ka'bah and say Allāhu akbar three times, then supplicate. 'Umrah ends by shaving the head or shortening the hair — a woman cuts a fingertip's length from each braid. Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ – the ḥajj of Jābir[ؓ]
05 8–9 Dhul-Ḥijjah THE 8TH · YAWM AT-TARWIYAH Enter ihrām for Hajj from your lodging in Makkah. Go to Minā before noon and pray Zuhr, 'Aṣr, Maghrib, 'Ishā' and Fajr there — each shortened to two, but not joined. THE 9TH · 'ARAFAH After sunrise move to 'Arafah. Be certain you are within its boundary — the whole plain is a standing place except Baṭn 'Uranah. Pray Zuhr and 'Aṣr joined and shortened at the time of Zuhr, with one adhān and two iqāmahs. Stand from noon until sunset facing the qiblah, hands raised, in du'ā and dhikr. This standing is the Hajj. Do not leave before the sun has fully set. Tirmidhī, Nasā'i · ṣaḥīḥ – “The Hajj is 'Arafah.” BEST SAID THAT DAY لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ، لَهُ الْمُلْكُ وَلَهُ الْحَمْدُ وَهُوَ عَلَى كُلِّ شَيْءٍ قَدِيرٌ Tirmidhī · hasan – “The best du'ā is that of the day of 'Arafah.” After sunset, leave for Muzdalifah calmly; pray Maghrib and 'Ishā' joined there, sleep, and gather pebbles.	06 10 · Yawm an-Naḥr Five acts, in this order where possible — though the Prophet ﷺ was asked about each done out of order and said each time: “Do it, and there is no harm.” 1 · Jamrat al-'Aqabah — seven pebbles at the largest pillar, saying Allāhu akbar with each. The talbiyah stops at the first stone. 2 · The hady — sacrificed by those performing tamattu' or qirān. It may be arranged through an authorised agency. 3 · Shaving or shortening — shaving is better; the Prophet ﷺ asked mercy three times for those who shaved and once for those who shortened. 4 · Ṭawāf al-Ifāḍah — a pillar of Hajj; it cannot be replaced by any compensation. 5 · Sa'y — for those performing tamattu', and for others who did not do it after the arrival ṭawāf. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ LEAVING IḤRĀM First release — after stoning and shaving: everything becomes lawful again except intercourse. Full release — after ṭawāf al-ifāḍah: all is lawful.	07 11–13 & farewell AYYĀM AT-TASHRIQ Spend the nights of the 11th and 12th in Minā. Each afternoon, after the sun passes its zenith, stone all three pillars in order: Ṣuḡhrā — seven pebbles, then step aside, face the qiblah and make a long du'ā. Wustā — seven pebbles, then du'ā again. 'Aqabah — seven pebbles, and no du'ā after it. Bukhārī · ṣaḥīḥ. The weak, the ill and women may appoint someone to stone on their behalf. LEAVING MINĀ You may depart after stoning on the 12th, provided you are out of Minā before sunset. Remaining for the 13th is better, and then stoning it is obligatory. Q 2:203 – “Whoever hastens in two days, no sin upon him.” ṬAWĀF AL-WADĀ' Seven circuits as your last act in Makkah — obligatory, with a dam if omitted. A woman in ḥayd is excused it entirely. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ	08 Dam & Madīnah WHEN A SACRIFICE IS OWED Hady — for tamattu' and qirān. A sheep, or a seventh of a camel or cow. Omitting a wājib — passing a miqāt without ihrām, not staying at Muzdalifah, not stoning, omitting the farewell ṭawāf: one sheep each. Fidyat al-adhā — shaving or wearing sewn cloth from need: choose one of fasting three days, feeding six poor, or a sheep. Hunting — its like in livestock, or the equivalent in food, or a day's fast for each portion. Intercourse before the first release — the Hajj is invalidated, it must be completed, repeated the following year, and a camel sacrificed. Q 2:196, 5:95; the rulings of the Companions recorded by Mālik and al-Bayhaqī. VISITING MADĪNAH No part of Hajj, but a journey of its own merit — a prayer in the Prophet's masjid is worth a thousand elsewhere. Pray two rak'ahs, then greet him ﷺ and his two companions quietly, facing the chamber, and ask Allah alone for your needs. Bukhārī, Muslim · ṣaḥīḥ
